If nobody can get a room at the Super 8 motel. (since it is now fully booked) ....

I have an alternative up the road

I just called the Best Western Flying J (the old headquarters for the Desert Storm in 2006) and they will do a rally rate of $62.99/night under my name Denise McMahon. Just replace it with your name, credit card info and you are in for that rate. I have a block of 10 rooms...5 single and 5 doubles at that rate. I can get more once those 10 are taken...
